

Privacy Policy for Novaretina.com

This document describes how Novaretina.com collects information from you or about you, and how we may use or disclose this information. In addition, this document sets forth our general policies on information security.

Information Collection

There are several kinds of information we collect. For all visitors to the Site, we collect your IP address. An IP address is a number automatically assigned to your computer whenever you access the Internet. We collect IP address information that shows us the aggregate information on visitors to our site, on how our site is being used, and on the pages visitors are viewing. To maintain your anonymity, we do not associate IP addresses with records containing personal information. However, if needed, we may use IP address information to personally identify you in order to enforce our legal rights or when required to do so by law enforcement authorities.

Cookies

We may also place small data files, called "cookies," in the browser file of your computer's hard drive. These cookies automatically identify your browser to our server when you interact with the Site. Most browsers automatically accept these cookies.

Aggregate Information

We use general traffic, site usage, and length of stay information for statistical reporting. This type of information does not personally identify you.

Children's Privacy

The Site is intended for adults aged 18 and older. It is not intended for or directed at persons under the age of 18. If you are under the age of 18, you may not register for our newsletter or submit personally identifiable information to or through the Site. Joseph Timmes, Jr., M.D. does not collect personally identifiable information through the Site from any person Joseph Timmes, Jr., M.D. actually knows to be under the age of 18.

Other Sites

Our privacy policies apply only to your use of the Site. This Site may contain links to third party sites. While we do not disclose personally identifiable information to the parties operating linked sites, we are not responsible for the privacy practices of linked other sites. You should read the privacy policies of each site you visit to determine what information that site may be collecting about you.
